MEETING OF SEDIMENTOLOGY

12 - 16 June 2023 CROATIA DUBROVNIK

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to the 36th International Meeting of Sedimentology (36th IMS) held in Dubrovnik, Croatia, 12th - 16th of June, 2023. The 36th IMS is supported by the International Association of Sedimentologists. The city of Dubrovnik, with its amazing Old Town and Walls of Dubrovnik, is one of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites due to its outstanding medieval architecture and rich history. The city lies on the rocky coast above the crystal-clear waters of the Adriatic Sea, offering an inspirational environment for researchers to share and discuss their ideas. The city's geographical position is ideal for geological exploration of the wider region, making it the logical choice for the 36th IMS. We are most honoured to continue a tradition that started in 1983 with the 4th IAS Regional Meeting held in Split, Croatia, and the 22nd IAS Meeting of Sedimentology held in Opatija, Croatia. Let's continue this tradition together!

We are looking forward to seeing you in Dubrovnik!

The organizing committee

D u b r o v n i k

Dubrovnik is mainly a CULTURAL DESTINATION, which asides from monuments of interest, offers a series of cultural events and festivals. It is also a destination where you can enjoy a rest, and has extremely good air connections with all the larger European centres.

It is surrounded by MEDIEVAL WALLS that are 1940 metres long and are preserved in their original form. They are open to visitors and are the city's greatest attraction. Since 1979 the town has been under UNSECO protection.

The over a THOUSAND YEAR old history of Dubrovnik is visible in every part of this city. The city is a living museum and a live stage, and has an ideal connection between its historical past and the modern day.

It is also a proud holder of the THIRD OLDEST PHARMACY in all of Europe and the oldest pharmacy still in use on the continent today. Originally opened in 1317, the Old Pharmacy has been in operation for over 700 years.

Dubrovnik is a city that charms, a city that you fall in love with and ALWAYS RETURN to like new, to discover more unique experiences.
